Q. Whatever happened to Donna Mills? It seems she has just disappeared since leaving the hit CBS show, "Knots Landing." Kyle D. Milne, Jr.

A. For the past two years, Donna has been working on a project titled "Runaway Father," a CBS-TV drama about the real-life story of Patricia Bennett. In 1987, a court awarded Ms. Bennett 18 years of back child support. The delay in the release of this flick was due to script problems, but next week in CBS' "World's Oldest Living Bride" Donna stars this

Q. I heard that Bette Midler and Woody Allen did not get along personally together when they shot the movie, "Scenes From A Mall." Is this true, and if so, what was the problem? Sparky T.

A. The relationship was somewhat strained in the beginning, but the two stars were on a friendly basis when they wrapped up the movie. Woody, you see, is usually the big hitmen when he does a film — along with calling all the shots and having total control. However, Midler has brought in over $300 million to Disney Films, and she was top-dog on this project, which took Woody some time to adjust to. As a professional, though, he did, and the movie looks like a future big hit for both stars.

Q. I do not like Andrew Dice Clay at all. I was wondering if his "Fairfaxe" movie was a hit at the box office, considering all the hype over this tasteless "comic" — Anne W.

A. "The Adventures of Ford Fairfaxe" was a box-office bomb — grossing only $22 million. Apparently, Clay's appeal is not universal enough to produce a hit motion picture. In fact, Clay was supposed to begin filming "The Gossip Columnist" with Daryl Hannah, but that project has been put on hold, and Hannah has left the United States for Brazil to instead film "At Play in the Fields of the Lord." Apparently the folks at Fox are seriously studying whether Clay can carry his own weight on the big screen, and that does not look very promising, indeed.

Q. A lot has been written about Ronald and Nancy Reagan, so when do we hear about it from the man himself? Cora K.

A. Ronald Reagan has completed his autobiography for Simon & Schuster, and it's titled "An American Life," due for release this fall.

Q. Donald Trump has the funniest-looking hair I have ever seen in my life. With all of his money, why can't he get a decent hair piece? Terry R.

A. The Donald's hair is real. That's why he hasn't yet purchased a rug. Donald, though, does have some stunning hair, and reportedly used a product which contains both a hair expander and coloring. I agree, Terry: his hair is very odd looking.

Q. Please settle this argument my husband and I are having about Laurence (Olivier's widow. Did she, or didn't she, just die. My husband says yes, but I say Joan Plowright is still alive. Who is right? Joan W.

A. Laurence Olivier's first wife, whom he married before Vivien Leigh, recently died. Joan Plowright was the actor's third wife.

Q. I keep reading in the papers that Donald Trump has a running feud with Merv Griffin. Can you tell me why? Is it because they're rivals in Atlantic City? Also, what's the status of Merv's romance with Eva Gabor? Thank you. Darlene C.

A. Trump reportedly beat out Griffin in a deal regarding their respective casinos in Atlantic City. Merv, who raises in a few shekels from other interests besides casinos, including "Wheel of Fortune" and "Jeopardy" (he always credits his fortune with for the idea that led to the latter game), never went public with his feelings about Trump's methods. However, insiders have said the deal, while legal, was pretty nasty. These days, Trump is having a lot of problems in Atlantic City but Merv, ever the gentleman, refuses to gloat over his adversary's troubles.

Merv and Eva continue to be good friends. As of now, neither is interested in changing the relationship from friendship to matrimony.

Q. I know Liza Minnelli and Lorna Luft are sisters, but who are their fathers? Also, do they have a brother? And who is Frances Gumm that their mother, Judy Garland, once said she could never escape? Bobby B.

A. Judy Garland had Liza with her second husband, Vincente Minnelli, the late, great director. She had Lorna and her son, Joey, with another husband, producer Sid Luft. Frances Gumm is Judy's real name. The story is that she was once asked how it felt to be the famous Judy Garland, and she reportedly answered that fame is a sometime thing that comes and goes depending on your last movie or record album. But who you are stays with you always.

Q. Did Arnold Schwarzenegger have an affair with the late Mae West? Phyllis T.

A. No. However, Ms. West did collect muscular young men as part of her public entourage and, reportedly, he was one of many actors who appeared in Ms. West's company from time to time.

Soap Updates by Seli Groves

ALL MY CHILDREN: Opal kept committing social faux pas in spite of her efforts to impress Palmer with her new image. Cesara made David jealous with Will, but didn't get the marriage proposal she'd been hoping for. Travis arranged to have Erica appear on television to encourage people to be tested as potential bone marrow donors, and to provide a demonstration on how the procedure actually works. Trask became angry when Lannie told him she's not yet ready for intimacy. She later learned he's involved in a counterfeit video ring. Wait To See: Erica's appeal reaches people, but will they be the right people to help save Molly?

ANOTHER WORLD: Sam was stunned to learn Amanda left town with Alli. Olivia had proof Evan was in collusion with the insurance man. He warned her if she ruins thing for him and Amanda, Olivia would lose Sam to Amanda. Marlus intercepted Vicky's call to Ryan and told her she and Lucas made a fatal mistake. Paulina was furious when she found Marley's suitcase at Jake's place. Jamie was forced to tell Marley that Jake had been sleeping with Paulina. Wait To See: Olivia realizes she may have put Sam into danger.

AS THE WORLD TURNS: Raging with jealousy after finding Julie with Holden, Caleb warned he'll kill him for seducing his wife. Angel overheard Holden say he can't make his marriage work because he loves another woman. While Hal looked forward to fatherhood, Barbara made a furtive call to Dr. Sarmela. Duke realized Susan was at the center of Kim and Bob's marital problems. Connie Lombard admitted she had had an affair with Rosemary Kramer. Bob learned Susan was pardoned from her fall. Wait To See: Angel creates a new problem for Holden.

BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL: Eric was puzzled by Stephanie's suggestion that he and Brooke move into the Forrester home for a month before she'll agree to a divorce. Stephanie also told Ridge to consider moving back into the house for a while. Storm told Ridge to keep away from Brooke when she comes back to town. Dorinda told Jake she lied to Margo about his leaving town so that he wouldn't actually have to go. Felicia insisted Margo tell her where Jake has gone. Taylor told Ridge she's his connection to Caroline. Sally blackmailed Bill into running an article on Clarke and Spectra. Wait To See: Stephanie goes into the next phase of her plan to save her marriage.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES: Bo realized Carly was losing something and asked for help here. Justin told Kayoko he adored Adrienne, were about to adopt twins. Kimiko upset that Jessica was dividing his children, called for a meeting with Lawrence who revealed that everything that has happened so far, including the fire, Chad's relationship with Carrie, Isabella's anti drug campaign, are part of the plan to take over Green Oaks Penal Johnny proved a Kimiko, jumped at Porter's offer to get back at Victor. Jennifer agreed to pose as Katerina for the wedding, then get out on a technicality. Carly realized Bo is the "Hi'erefront Raider." Wait To See: Eve faces the consequences of her divided loyalties, and Jennifer learns what Werner's plans really are.

GENERAL HOSPITAL: Frisco realized Drago could kill Decker and Dawn now that Decker knew he wasn't Colbistus's murderer. Charlene, Colton, and Tiffany went on TV to beg Decker not to trust Drago. Kate and Robert were released from the Embassy after the attempted assassination of Communargo. Rico was mysteriously well informed on El Presidente's illness. Ned signed over his ELQ stock proxy to Tracy. At the warehouse, Dawn found Decker's bag of knives and his suicide note (written by Drago in Decker's handwriting) and realized her doubts about Drago were real. Drago took Dawn hostage. Wait To See: Dawn is confronted with another desperate situation.

GENERATIONS: Aurora told Reginald the piece at the gallery was not the original Emerald Buddha. Christy told Jordan where Sam was and confided her plan to break Sam and Kyle up for good. Doreen was stunned to learn Martin was going to dissolve his partnership with the Marshalls. Despite threats his fans may attack her, and her own feelings for Eric, Chantal pressed for the maximum sentence for him. Doreen and Daniel began making love in a mysterious figure photographed by them. Maya was stunned at the way Martin handled the Marshall situation. Wait To See: Maya may be in danger.

GUIDING LIGHT: India realized Phillip is ripe for blackmail. Roger told Alex Mallet is an investigator Phillip passed out when India inadvertently fed him the knockout herbs he had intended for her. Waking a day later, he rushed immediately to meet Beth at the dock and saw a figure emerging from the mist. Billy asked Vanessa to plan a new wedding for them. Wait To See: Roger realizes Phillip is in danger but he may not be able to help him.

KNOTS LANDING: New season summaries will start soon.

LOVING: Blanca and Dane learned that Jim and Jimmy's plane crashed and there were no survivors. Shauna fainted. When she was conscious, she confided in Angie that Ashley was the daughter of Cathy Geary. Angie sympathized with Shauna, who was overcome with grief. Cathy's death reminded Angie of her own loss. Dane and Blanca comforted each other. Shauna told Dane that Ashley was Cathy's daughter. Dane was stunned. Wait To See: Shauna's sympathy for those who lost loved ones on the plane, but showed no awareness that she was one of those people. Dane realized she had amnesia, and recognized no one, including Stacey who was relying on her defense in the murder trial. Donavan told Curtis she believed the jury. Bo blamed his lawyer for getting Hockey involved in the immigration case. The mystery woman attempted to wrestle her to the ground. Next day, Norma was on the stand and pointed to the woman now being led into the courtroom as Rio's killer. Wait To See: The Aldens face a new crisis.

ONE LIFE TO LIVE: Bo was knocked out and Sarah taken away by Kip. Rika, doing investigative reporting for the Banner, revealed she and Laura had gone to school she and Laura had gone to school together. Cyril asked Tina to set a wedding date. Gabriella told Jillo that one of the letters Max's mother wrote indicates she slept with Asa Buchanan, and was months later. Max was born. Asa was upset that Carlo and his family moved into his hotel. Tina decided to inquire about Carlo's background. Asa was pleased to learn they'd sold the shoddy art to the Mandarin. Robert was stunned to see Quinn who told him how he'd planned to take his place, including marrying Kelly. Determined to get her share of the proceeds from Lionel, Gina confronted him about his years in Augusta and Daniel began making love in a mysterious figure photographed by them. YOUR HOROSCOPE
by Charles King Cooper

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) There are too many loose ends in connection with a business deal. Avoid taking risks. Someone appreciates your loyalty. Though romantic feelings strengthen, you could become the victim of your ardent business. Safeguard capital. Avoid taking chances.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A family member appreciates your help. Gains are to be made through work now. Avoid distractions and foolish expenditures. Rely on your own efforts to get things done. Someone to whom you entrust a responsibility could let you down.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You may invest in jewelry or precious metals, but you may be lax about details on the job. Sift through rumors for the truth. An old friend would like you to dine out. Spending could get out of hand in connection with romance or the pursuit of pleasure.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Save some money for a rainy day. A family member may exaggerate. Signals between loved ones could be crossed. Watch communications. Not everything you hear today will be true. Others may misrepresent the truth in some way. A bond of friendship grows stronger.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Carelessness with money could be a problem. Don't misplace keys or other valuables. Career connections pay off for you now. Make sure you follow through on promises in business. Don't take on more than you can handle. You may hear from an old love.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Investigate retirement plans. Business and pleasure mix favorably. Interruptions may interfere with a desire for privacy later. Legal matters are favored, but a friend seems lackadaisical, and is not to be counted on. Avoid loaning money to others.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You may act against your better judgment regarding a job situation. Relations with a loved one improve. A friend may let you down. Work gains accrue, but a loved one seems uninterested. Finance-seeking could lead to overspending. Hold fast to ethics.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You see eye-to-eye with a loved one, but don't goad each other into extravagant moves. A work matter could get you down. Watch reckless promises. Rapport increases with a co-worker. A family member refuses to budge. Evening hours now favor quiet pursuits.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Impulse buying could lead to unwise purchases. Pleasant news comes early in the week, but later a domestic problem arises. You gain encouragement from a family member. Accent positive thinking. Don't dwell on limitations.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) It's a good time to express ideas and to contact others, but do refrain from gossiping. Slight inhibitions may arise after dark. Private chats are illuminating. A friend makes an extravagant promise. Be more sensitive to the feelings of a family member.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 19) A friendship reaches a turning point over a financial matter. Don't take chances career-wise. A party invitation comes now. Avoid open confrontation with others. You work best from behind the scenes. It's a poor time to ask a favor of a friend.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You may feel unappreciated by a higher-up, though welcome support comes in the area of friendships. Say no to a money request. Don't mix business and friendship now. Luck is with you in career interests, but don't push beyond reasonable limits.

DEAR DIANE
by Diane Van Arsdale

DEAR DIANE:

My boyfriend broke up with me after four months. I was pretty hurt and shocked by it. He said the reason was because he was going to be gone for the whole summer in another state. I realize now that he knew this when he asked me out, but didn't bother to tell me about it until a week before he left. I felt really used. I had gotten pretty intimate with him while we were going out, and I thought he meant it when he said, "I love you." He says he wants to stay friends, and do things together with this other couple we used to double with. I told him how I felt about what he'd done, and that I didn't think he should call anymore because if I'm going to be around other people and trying to get over him, I'll just get all upset about him again every time he does. My friends think I'm being selfish by not staying friends with him because I still like him, and we both got along together so well. Am I being selfish?

DEAR CONFUSED:

I think you have every right to feel hurt by what happened. After all, he did lead you on. Personally, I don't think there is any friendship since it all seems to have been based upon a deception in the first place.

As for your friends, I wouldn't worry about what they have to say. While they can offer advice or opinions, they don't have to live your life. You do. Thus, the next time they venture an opinion, simply thank them for their interest, but let them know that you are more than capable of making your own decisions.

If you decide to see the young man, do yourself a favor and don't allow the relationship to revert to its former intimate terms. That isn't necessary to carry on a friendship.

Send letters to Diane c/o King Features Weekly Service, 235 East 45th Street, New York, N.Y. 10017.

DEAR DEX
by Dexter Dyer

DEAR DEX:

I have just read your reply to a question by "Curious" concerning the marriage of first cousins. Your reply that first cousins cannot marry is wrong. Many states, including Michigan, allow first cousins to marry. Civil incest laws are constantly being rewritten. In the few states where first cousins may not marry, they are allowed to do so if it is part of their religion (predominately Jewish), or ethnic background.

My new book, "Kinship: It's All Relative" (Genealogical Publishing Company, Inc.), explores consanguinity and discusses such topics as the one in question. Library Journal said in its review that "Kinship should be a must-have reference for every library."

I enjoy your column and look forward to hearing from you.

JACKIE SMITH ARNOLD

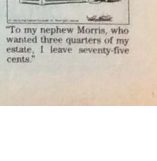
DEAR MS. ARNOLD:

Thank you for your very interesting and informative letter concerning the marriage of first cousins.

Personally, I believe such marriages are disadvantageous because the resultant offspring run the risk of mental retardation and other physical maladies because of the close genetic tie. That is not to say that it always happens, but the odds are more for it than against it.

Religious and ethnic groups which still promote first-cousin marriages are probably engaged in practices in which this was practiced in order to preserve the group and stand up to the threat of intermarriage and mingling of beliefs and customs. With all that we know now, I hardly think it's necessary anymore.

Again, thanks for writing.



"To my nephew Morris, who wanted three quarters of my estate, I leave seventy-five cents."
